
ARENA REPORT

Volume II, Number 6

WORLD WRESTLING FEDERATION

Monday, November 27, 1989

Ocean Center
Daytona Beach, FL

Welcome to another issue of "Arena Report". Hope everyone had a nice Turkey Day. I'd like to thank Klon and his wife Elaine for inviting me and Cheryl over for Thanksgiving dinner as well as the Survivor Series. It made being away from home a little easier. In this issue you'll find a report on the PWF card from Orlando on 11/26 that I attended with arena reporter Bruce Ginevan and his girlfriend Michelle who are here on vacation from Maryland. Reviews on Survivors as well as the Sat. Night's Main Event are included as well. I've also jotted some notes down on the Clash from Troy. My new policy on special TV shows will be that I will only run down results of the show if it aired within a week of press time. Anything after that is usually old news and I'll just give you my thoughts on the card. (If you even care.)

The next issue of "AR" should be in your mailboxes one week from now as I'll be attending the WWF in Lakeland on Dec. 2nd. And I'll be at Eddie Graham on the third so that report will be included as well. I will put out another issue in Dec. Right now the best bet looks like Dec. 17 with the PWF as Turner isn't running in Dec. Vince is rumored to be taping the PPV cage match for December down in FLA but I can't find out where yet. I mentioned last issue that I would only publish one issue in January but that seems unlikely as I can't stay away from this typewriter for that long.

"Arena Report" is published twice per month at the cost of 75¢.an issue. A number should appear at the top left corner telling you how many issues you have remaining on your sub. For those subs that run out with this issue, I will have extra copies of the 12/2 issue made up so you won't miss any when you send me your renewal. I'll have my new address in the 12/17 issue. The house is coming along fine. Memo to those who have not bought their first home yet: Stock up on Roloids one month before closing on the house. Believe me, you'll need them. Now let's go to the city that loves Jake the Snake. (Almost forgot. Send all renewals, letters to the editor, and match reports to Ron Lemieux, 370 Lake Tahoe Ct. #102, Altamonte Springs, FL 32701.)

Opening Match

Haku beat Paul Roma in 11:50. Decent opener. Roma did the best Thesz press I've seen yet. End came as Paul missed a charge in the corner and Haku hit him with a savate kick. **

2nd Match

Dino Bravo pinned Hercules after a side slam at 10:32. Not much to say here but yuck. -

Intercontinental Championship

Ultimate Warrior defeated Andre the Giant to retain the IC title in 20 seconds. I finally got to see the multi second match live. If I was a mark, I'd be pissed. What a ripoff. Fans loved it. What do I know. Three clotheslines and a splash. Dud

Tag Team Match

Hart Foundation fought to a twenty minute draw with The Rockers at 21:04. Wish it went longer. An absolute classic. All worked great. Looks like Bret's ribs have healed. Spot after spot. The best was a double hip toss on Bret by the Rockers, then the double elbow followed by the double kip up but Neidhart greeted them with a double clothesline. Looked better than it sounds. At the bell, they all kept brawling until Perez, Santana, Roma, and agents Strongbow & Goulet came out. Great Stuff. *****

5th Match

Al Perez defeated Brooklyn Brawler in 9:38. Fans weren't into it at all. Al did a wild airplane spin suplex. Lombardi submitted to the spinning finger hold. Don't ask me. Perez did it like the Spinning toe hold but used the arm. Dud

6th Match

Tito Santana beat Bad News Brown via dq at 7:03. Highlight was an old man throwing a cup of beer on Brown. They actually ejected the poor old guy. He could barely walk. Ref got bumped in the corner when Brown pushed him into Chico. Thus, the DQ. *

Main Event

Hacksaw Duggan beat Randy Savage via count out in 10:57. Who do I hate worse, Duggan or Beefcake. Tough choice. Savage can't even save these bouts. Duggan chased Sherri in the ring and Randy was still on the outside. ½* Sherri looked great in a black dress tonight. Oh, sorry Jonny G.

Notes

They announced the line up for the "Royal Rumble" which takes place on January 21 here in Orlando. If you remember, Vince usually has two or three other bouts besides the Rumble that in the past couple of years have put us to sleep. (Excluding Bomb Angels-Martin & Kai match) We may go in hibernation from this years extra bouts. Nap #1- Greg Valentine vs. Ron Garvin for the 6,098,053 time. Nap #2- Lanny Genius Poffo vs. Brutus Beefcake Nap #3- Bushwhackers vs. Rougeaus (Guess they're not history after all.) Well, at least I'll be well rested when we go out after the show. They will also have Bro Love with two guests, Sherri and Liz. I don't like this. I actually see them putting Liz in the ring at Wrestlemania. No surprises in the participants in the Rumble. Zeus however, wasn't announced.... Crowd tonight was 5,100.

Ramblings

Since I hear from most readers that this is the most well liked section of "AR", I suggest you read the above paragraph as there is some new news in there... Word is that Billy Jack Haynes has already left Florida because he has once again signed a contract with Titan. He lasted a whole two weeks. The PWF office wasn't happy... Lots of injuries in the NWA. Arena reporter Mike Gunter gave them the nickname MWA- Mash Wrestling Alliance. Sid Vicious broke a couple of ribs at the Clash show which punctured a lung. He'll be out awhile... Butch Reed (Half of Doom) blew out his knee in Columbus, OH. He's still working dates but Simmons is carrying the load... Pillman also tore his knee up... Even agent Wahoo McDaniel is in the hospital suffering from diabetes... Freebirds had an unplanned mini vacation as they were temporarily suspended. Guess they were bad birds... Jerry Lawler is now a full fledged heel. He'll work with Bill Dundee in Memphis Monday night... Looks like Tully Blanchard won't be NWA bound after all. He allegedly failed a drug

PROFESSIONAL WRESTLING FROM FLORIDA

Sunday, November 26, 1989
Eddie Graham Sports Complex
Orlando, FL

Opening Match

Jumbo Beretta and Lou Perez went to a fifteen minute draw at 14:14. Jumbo did a Muta somersault to elbow in the corner but it was in slow motion. Still impressive for a guy his size. Decent action. **

2nd Match

Mike Awesome defeated Bodyguard Mark in 7:06. Awesome was a sub for Terminator who may finally be gone to the NWA. Mike pushed Mark into the ropes and rolled him up. Even though Mark is a Keirn disciple, they are doing what they should and not pushing him just yet. He's got a long way to go. Dud

Florida Tag Team Championship

Bounty Hunters retained their titles by beating Brickhouse Brown & Tyree Pride via DQ at 16:37. Al Greene and Tim Parker comprised the Hunters. I don't think there was one person in the building who didn't know who Greene was. I broke the unwritten rule of yelling "smart" things to wrestlers. I told Parker to go back doing jobs for TBS and his reply was, "You think you know something don't you." The Hunters threw Tyree over the top rope and Micky Jay didn't see it. Brick delivered a dropkick to Greene which sent him over the top and Mick dq'd the faces.  $\frac{1}{4}$

Non-Title Match

Ron Slinker pinned Steve Keirn in 11:45. Quit this match up already. I guess this means we have to sit through a title match between these two next week. Lots of comedy on Keirn's part. At one point he picked a bug up off the mat and stuck it in Ron's mouth. Nasty. Steve had the sleeper clamped on but Parker ran in and was met by the body guard. But then Al Greene ran down and distracted Keirn. Parker threw Slinker brass Knucks and he nailed Steve to set up the pin. $\frac{1}{2}$ *. Match stunk but post match gets the grade.

Main Event Tag Team Match

Mike Graham & Buggy McGraw over Kendall Windham & BlackJack Mulligan in 18:51. Mulligan has lost lots of weight. He's back to wearing his black horseshoe trunks. Graham bled due to the claw from BJ. End saw Kendall whip Mike into a chair that his daddy was holding for the DQ. Buggy and BJ are ~~60~~ combined. Unreal. *

NOTES: Crowd was 178 which is larger than usual... They had a supposed autograph session but the only ones out were Pride and Buggy. McGraw had the audacity to charge a buck for his signature on his picture... I was joined tonight by Maryland reader Bruce Ginevan and his now fiance Michelle. Congrats to the two of them. This was the first of 4 shows in 8 days for me. The two of them will join Cheryl and I in Lakeland and then the next night back here at Eddie Graham. They are skipping Daytona but may hit the PWF tapings in Tampa Tuesday night. ... This groups tv didn't air in Orlando this week as UPS didn't deliver on Friday so the station didn't get the tape. Major league huh.... I still would like to see these guys make a go of it. The crowd they do get here is lively.

Survivor Series Review

1) Dream Team beat The Enforcers in 20:27. Rick Martel pinned Tito Santana using trunks. Bad News Brown left the ring in disgust after Boss Man accidentally hit him. You know that Brown, he's a loner. He was also a sub for Akeem who no one knew where he was. Beefcake gave his patented knee to Honkey and pinned him. Boss Man bubba slammed Terry Rooster. Dusty Rhodes landed on Bubba with a flying body press to eliminate him and make Dusty & Beefer the Survivors. Boss Man then attacked Dusty & Brutus with the nightstick and Rhodes bled. Shows how much power the nightmare has with Vince. Eliminations were all too predictable. $\frac{1}{4}$ **

2) King's Court downed 4 X 4's in 23:13. Canadian Earthquake (sub for Windham. To be his first night back but still not ready. If you ask me, the problem is more than medical.) eliminated Hercules when he sat on him. Looked terrible. Duggan clotheslined Valentine to send him packing. Before Greg got eliminated, he and Garvin had a good slap fest. Bravo side slammed Garvin. Randy Savage used a flying elbow to pin Bret Hart. I was looking forward to their confrontation but Bret is hurting with a severe bruise on his chest thus he did the best he could. As Hack Duggan went into the ropes, Sherri pulled the top one down and he fell over it. Tenta came off the apron with a double fist and he was counted out. Survivors: Savage, Bravo, Earthquake. $\frac{1}{2}$ *

3) Hulkamaniacs beat Million Dollar Team in 27:29. Zeus was DQ'd for choking Hogan in about 2 minutes. Sure the marks were happy. I think they wanted him out of there and they've given up on Zeus-Hulk for the big one in April. Warlord pinned Ax after a Fuji trip. Barbie clothesline Smash from the top rope. Both Powers of Pain were dq'd for using a stuff piledriver. Virgil came out and Jake gave him the DDT but Ted DiBiase hit Jake immediately with a fist drop and pinned him. Can you guess how Hulk eliminated Ted. Leg bomb? You got it. How did you know? DiBiase's work in this match was awesome.  Survivor: Hogan

4) Rude's Brood defeated Roddy's Rowdies in 21:23. Jimmy Snuka superflied Jacques Rougeau. Piper gave Raymond a piledriver. Curt Hennig pinned Whacker Butch with a roll up. Rick Rude awakened Luke. Rude & Piper then brawled to the back to eliminate both. Hennig gave Snuka the perfect plex to be the lone survivor. No Snuka turn as expected. They have to finish Piper-Rude before they go on to Snuka-Piper. Can tell the Rougeaus are history as Vince had them eliminated one, two. **

5) Ultimate Warriors beat Heenan's Family in 20:51. Andre was counted out as Warrior hit him with clotheslines. Similar to their house show bouts except Ultimate gets to pin him. Haku gave Neidhart a savate kick. Heenan (sub for Tully who had been fired) pinned Jannetty after two kicks to the head. What did Marty do to deserve that fate. Shawn Michaels hit Haku with a flying body press. Arn pinned Michaels after a great spine buster. Ultimate press and splashed Anderson. Warrior became the lone survivor after flying shoulder block and splash on Heenan. Michaels and Arn worked great. Kudos to Anderson for doing a great job on his last match with Titan. , Rude and Hennig argued during their bout so who knows, maybe a Rude face turn down the line... During a Hulk & Beefer interview, Sherri threw powder in their eyes and Savage and Zeus attacked. Why do I have this story buried? Because this whole Zeus thing is boring me to death. The guy sucks, bottom line.... I give the show a marginal thumbs down. The work rate was decent but the booking stunk. All too predictable. Their lowest quality Survivors yet.... What is this crap with Howard Finkel as "The Fink". Related to the Weasel?

Clash Notes

Since it seems like ages ago, instead of the last Clash results, here are some of my thoughts on the show... What was the purpose of a live Louisville Slugger?... The crowd in Troy was so dead for the first couple of bouts. Places like this are fine for house shows but don't run TV specials there... Crowd started getting into it after Shane's dive over the top rope... Fans popped when Cornette nailed Shane with the racquet.' I enjoy shows more when the fans boo and cheer who they are supposed to. ... Did you realize that it was Jack Victory under the Super Destroyer mask? I hear Dave Meltzer's next project is a "Who's Who" directory on Jack Victory. It'll be 100 pages long... Scott Steiner is simply a phenom. One of the future superstars of this sport. Jim Ross reached his peak in this bout between the Steiners and Scrapers. Before that, Gordon Solie kept dragging him down. Bring back Bob Caudle for these shows... Why did they go to break during the tag war. Because they're the NWA... Let Terry Funk retire in peace. Don't bring him back for special shots. The guy should be a legend. Give him some rest man.... Before this show I was down on Starcade but now I'm pumped. They did a great job of hyping it. Thumbs up, great stuff... Correspondent Dan Reilly and son Chris had primo front row seats and were sitting where Terry Funk got straddled on the guard rail.

1) Eddie Gilbert pinned Cuban Assassin with a roll up. Not a good effort on either's part. 2) Tommy Rich rolled up Norman in a bout where both worked hard. C- 3) Tom Zenk upended Mike Rotunda with a sunset flip from the ring apron. Fans got into it a little more than previous bouts. C+ 4) Midnight Express downed New Zealand Militia when Stan pinned Jacko. Eaton worked practically the entire bout and all looked good sans for Lane. B 5) Sid Vicious beat Road Warrior Hawk via DQ when the ref caught Hawk with Teddy Long's key. Originally to be a tag but Spivey no showed. Not a good match. C- 6) Steiner Bros beat Freebirds when Rick pinned Garvin. Nothing special here except Scott's legsteiner (my name for it) on Hayes. C- 7) Lex Luger retained US title by defeating Brian Pillman with leverage from the ropes. A decently worked match but not main event caliber. C+ Att: 600

1) Sam Houston pinned Lord Zoltan in 10:44 with a bulldog. Good bumps by both. C+ 2) Fabulous Moolah and Rockin Robin went to a draw at 21:58. Why make it more painful than they had to? Moolah even used a foreign object. D- 3) Krusher Klebanski beat Phsyck Mike to regain North American title in 11:17. Paul Orndorff came to the ring and piledrove Mike so the Krusher could pin him. The title they were using was the one Lawler won from Hennig that he never gave Verne back. D+ 4) Paul Jones pinned Ivan Koloff in a mat classic (will this be on the AWA show?) at 9:22. One of John's clunkers. F 5) Jerry Lawler beat Kamala via DQ as Paul Jones interfered at 13:46. D+ 6) Jerry Lawler (sub for King Parsons) beat Manny Fernandez via DQ at 11:53. Lawler came out to challenge Manny when Iceman was announced as a no show. The Bull threw the King (sounds like a fairy tale, no, Lanny Poffo isn't in it.) over the top rope. C 7) Paul Orndorff beat Kerry Von Ericj via DQ in 11:22. This was Paul's return to the ring. He'll probably just work occasional bouts here and there. Can't believe Von Erich showed up. Who showed him how to get to Ohio. Good action in this one. C+ 8) Killer Bees came out of their nest to beat Larry Zybszko & Manny Fernandez (sub for Buddy Landell, who started for World Class on this night.) in 13:23. Baby Doll was with the heels. Blair was hot tonight. They did a mask switch and then Brian sunset flipped Larry Z. B- ... This was my most intriguing indy card. I would have loved to have seen this one. Att: 500

1) Paul Roma beat Brooklyn Brawler with a dropkick from the top rope in 7:42. 2) Brutus Beefcake beat Rick Martel in 15:20. Beefcake did a sunset flip from the apron but Rick grabbed the ropes. The ref kicked the Model's hands and Beefer pinned him. 3) The Genius beat Jim Powers (sub for Horner) in 12:20. 4) Hacksaw Duggan downed Randy Savage on a count out in 7:47. Hack chased Sherri into the ring and Macho Man was still on the outside. 5) Canadian Earthquake gave Bill Woods a big splash. 6) Curt Hennig used the perfect plex to beat Jimmy Snuka in 9:55. 7) Bushwhackers downed Powers of Pain via DQ as Fuji used the cane at 9:35. 1) Mark Young (sub for Windham) pinned Bob Bradley with a sunset flip off the top rope in 9:40. 2) Honkey Tonk Man used the shake, rattle, and roll to put away Terry Taylor in 7:47. 3) Bret Hart and Tito Santana went to a double count out in 7:48. Started with a handshake but ended in a good brawl outside. Jim Neidhart came down to break it up. 4) Demolition beat Arn Anderson & Haku (announced as the Brain Busters) when Arn had a Boston crab clamped on and was clotheslined from behind. 5) Roddy Piper and Rick Rude went to a DDQ in a lumberjack match at 11:24. Roddy had a sleeper clamped on but Haku ran in to break it up and all the lumberjacks ran in for a mini battle royal. 6) Dino Bravo beat Jim Neidhart when he reversed a slam in 9:17. 7) Boris Zhukov upset Al Perez in 8:42 as Boris clotheslined Al in the back while he was arguing with the ref. No one in New Jersey knows the Latin Hearthrob. 8) Dusty Rhodes beat Big Boss Man with a flying body press in 7:04. Great heat for the dream.

1) Tom Zenk pinned Iron Sheik in 5:15. John's "Clunker of the Year" runner up behind Studd-Akeem. F 2) Samoan Swat Team & Samoan Savage beat Ranger Ross, Tommy Rich, and Eddie Gilbert in 12:58. Ross was going for a sunset flip on Tonga when Samu did a flying headbutt on the good Ranger. C 3) Dan Spivey beat Roadie Animal in 7:16. Animal was caught with a foreign object for DQ. Messed up ending. D 4) Midnight Express beat Dynamic Dudes in 20:46 when Cornette decked Shane with the racquet. Eaton and Jimmy had words but they hugged and made up. B 5) Steiner Brothers defeated Doom via DQ as Woman hit Rick. The Steiners had TWO, yes TWO tag belts. It's about time. B- 6) Lex Luger pinned Tom Zenk (sub for no show Brian Pillman) when he hit Z man with the belt. Zenk, like Rich isn't over here. No one cares. C- 7) Ric Flair beat Great Muta on a dq when Flair had Muta in a figure four but the Great One spit the mist. First 10 minutes were BADD. B- Att: 2,000 at 6:06 when Mike threw a bear in the ring and distracted Norm. Rotunda hit him with an elbow from the top rope and pinned him. 3) Tom Zenk pinned Michael Hayes in 7:19 when he reversed a flying bodypress. 4) Fatu and Tonga beat Ranger Ross & Eddie Gilbert in 6:58. Ranger was pushing Tonga into the corner for a roll up when Fatu headbutted him setting up the pin. Was to be a six man but Tommy Rich & Samu arrived late. 5) Roadie Animal downed Dan Spivey by dq as Teddy Long interfered after Animal gave Dangerous Dan a powerslam. 6) Midnight Express beat Dynamic Dudes in 14:15 with the Cornette nailing Shane in the back with the racquet finish. Long and grammatically wrong sentence eh? 7) Steiners beat Doom in 6:28. No woman but Nitron was there. Reed went to whip Scott into Nitron but Scott reversed it and then back suplexed Reed for the win. Doom must have gotten pinned because woman wasn't there. 8) Stin and Lex Luger went to a double count out in 9:27. 9) Ric Flair beat the Great Muta via dq in 10:17. Flair had the figure four on Muta when Luger ran out to interfere and they left Ric laying. Att: 2,500

Letter To The Editor

Universal Tapings

I actually discovered something worse than the WWF. Whatever sins I committed in past lives were paid up in full after I sat through 19 matches at the Universal Wrestling Superstars TV tapings in Brooklyn on 11/8.

Imagine the horror of seeing such "superstars" as Kamala, S.D (Super Dull) Jones and Sandy Beach over and over in squash matches--I felt like something or someone had sucked out my brain. I sat there numb as such nobodies as Carmine Albano with manager Lou Albano (some nepotism here I presume) won match after miserable match. Believe me, it was brutal, and they sold the place out at $10.00 to $12.50 a pop. They didn't shoot one angle and I just kept praying that announcer Bruno Sammartino or promoter Killer Kowalski would jump out and show these "Unquestionably Wretched Stiffs" how it should have been done. Stan Hansen was smart to no show; this was not exactly a good career move. I'd also like to add that during the dark match/main event between David Sammartino and Ivan Koloff, Bruno walked out of the arena after 30 seconds. I don't know if it was because of his son's mediocre performance or if he was just physically and emotionally drained from the entire endless evening.

Although I always wish indie groups all the success in the world, I draw the line with the U.W.S. This wasn't entertainment--it was punishment.

Saturday Night's Main Event Review

1) Ultimate Warrior beat Andre the Giant via DQ when Heenan interfered and Warrior threw Boobsie on top of Andre. I thought at first they were going to do the quick finish. Good canned heat. * $\frac{1}{4}$ Their best (?) I've seen. 2) The Genius beat Hulk Hogan via count out as Curt Hennig hit Hulk with the belt. Good comedy. Poffo plays the gay role better than Adonis and it's probably legit. Good entertainment and let's face it, we better start looking at the WWF that way.  $\frac{1}{2}$ 3) Dusty Rhodes rolled up Big Boss Man when Slick stopped to argue with Dust's new manger. (Yes, the angle already has been taped. Will she turn? Maybe.) Awful bout. -* 4) Curt Hennig downed Terry Taylor with the perfectplex. Not a bad match.  $\frac{1}{4}$ 5) Rockers beat Brain Busters in two out of three fall bout. Great interview with Heenan and the Busters before the match arguing strategy. Marty sunset flipped Tully for fall one when Arn's interference backfired. Heenan then walked back to the dressing room saying he was through with them. Fall two went to Tully and Arn which surprised me since all the reports I heard said Rockers won two straight. Michaels went for the headscissors but they dropped him throat first on the top rope. In fall three, Arn went for the piledriver on Shawn but Jannetty hit him with a flying bodypress. ¹/₄ ---- Hennig then was shown hammering the title belt to pieces. Funny stuff. A suggestion. Watch these shows Sunday morning. They are more enjoyable. I always fall asleep on Sat. night if I try to watch them and it's not always because of the quality. *****

test for Vince which was one of the reasons Titan let him go before Survivors. Arn is still due in and he'll team with Ole and Flair in six mans... How many of you caught the NWA is #1 banner on Survivors? Right after Jake threw the snake in the ring, look at the sixth row ringside. Must have been the Chicago 2... Curt Hennig's Mr. Perfect skits were taped at the Stamford YMCA. They didn't have to pay to rent the place but they gave the Y a nice donation... Rumors flying that Baby Doll will be Hogan's partner at Wrestlemania. Seems Dusty is tight with her and is pushing for the mix match... Baby Doll by the way, is the seamstress for the Freebirds and Steiner's outfits... Rob Russen promoting a show in Manatee, FL with Lawler-Junkfood on top, Fantastics vs. Malenko Bros., Paul E and original Midnights, Nikita vs. Bass and the Florida guys rounding out the card. This is his second show there. If he does not draw at least 1,000, he'll try somewhere else... Tommy Rogers in working some dates for PWF... Terry Funk did a super Grill this past week. On the other side of the TV spectrum, the Flair-Muta match on TBS almost put me to sleep... Twice during a TV promo for the NWA show in New Haven, Jim Ross was telling the people to go to "The Hartford Coliseum." Boy, I bet those people were surprised there was no one there... Boy, Jesse can grow a moustache quick. On Survivors he was clean shaven but on SNME he had facial hair again. On of the rare snafus in the McMahon empire... Why did the AWA bury Derrick Dukes on TV. He's not Hulk Hogan or anything. Leave the guy alone. It's bush league... And why do they keep showing those wife beater signs when Larry Z. is out. Does Verne think his daughter gets what she deserved?... Gotta love the Mad Dog. Buzz Sawyer is back and he looks great. I'd love a feud between he and Rick Steiner... Tom Zenk commented to one of the fans in New Haven on being booed, "These fans are brainwashed by Titan." Hardly. Most NWA crowds I see are rabid NWA fans. Maybe Mr. Z Man, you just don't cut it... I believe the Zeus & Savage vs. Hogan & Beefcake cage battle takes place in Niagra Falls 12/11. It will be taped of course because Vince is scared Zeus isn't ready. How perceptive...

Final Word

Thanks to all who helped put this issue together. I can't believe I have to start working on next weeks already. How does Dave and Steve do this every week. Oh, you too Jimmy Joe. Hope your Mom ungrounded you... Next issue will have the main report of 12/2 in Lakeland (WWF), the 12/3 PWF report, Evan Ginzburg's unique year end awards, a few reports from my buddies, a zany letter from Master J.Z. Zinger Travis, and other meanderings. Look that word up. Maybe I can lend it to Har... Now, now Ron, don't get carried away. Until next week.

See ya,

Ron

Line up for 12/3 PWF:
Bugge & Graham vs. Kendall & Blackjack in a bunkhouse, Sinker vs. Kern for the title no dq, Bounty Hunters vs. Perez & Tommy Rogers, Jumbo vs. Brickhouse.
